EDUCATION IN FAITH

Holy Father, God of Love,
You are the Creator of this land and of all good things.

We acknowledge the pain and shame of our history and the suffering of our peoples, and we ask your forgiveness.

We thank you for the survival of indigenous cultures.
Our hope is in you because you gave your Son Jesus
to reconcile the world to you.

We pray for your strength
and grace to forgive,
accept and love one another,
as you love us and forgive and accept us in the sacrifice of your Son.

Give us the courage to accept the realities of our history so that we may build a better future for our nation.

Teach us to respect all cultures.
Teach us to care for our land and waters.

Help us to share justly
the resources of this land.

Help us to bring about spiritual and social change
to improve the quality of life for all groups in our communities,
especially the disadvantaged.

Help young people to find true dignity and self esteem by your Spirit.

May your power and love
be the foundations
on which we build our families, our communities and our nation, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Ten years ago, on 13 February 2008, then Prime Minister Kevin Rudd delivered a poignant apology to the Stolen Generations, which became known as 'Sorry Day'.

For many indigenous and non-indigenous Australians, Sorry Day is an important day to recognise the wrongdoing, acknowledged by the government, about earlier assimilation policies.

After recently re reading the transcript of Mr Rudd's apology to the indigenous people of Australia I took notice of a particular part, early in Mr Rudd's speech.
He states that "We the Parliament of Australia respectfully request that this apology be received in the spirit in which it is offered as part of the healing of the nation" and "We today take this first step by acknowledging the past and laying claim to a future that embraces all Australians".

I am of the firm belief, that for us to move forward as one people, we need to truly hear the words of Mr Rudd, accept each other as individuals and embrace a future that involves all Australians.

This day gives all Australians the opportunity to come together and share steps towards healing for families and communities affected by the assimilation programs.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Hi Everyone!

My name is Tarryn May and I am this year's Registrar for Boulder City Joeys Soccer Club. Registrations for the 2018 Junior Soccer season are now open! The club is having a registration and preseason training day on Sunday 25th February at Usher Park from 11am to 1pm with a BBQ lunch to follow. We will have additional forms and copying facilities on the day if you do not have access to a printer/photocopier. If you cannot make registration day, you can send me your children's completed paperwork with copy of birth certificate via email to: mam666@bigpond.net.au

Please make sure that you fill out a separate form for each child if you are registering more than one and ensure your form and birth certificates are sent back in .pdf format. Fees are not yet payable as the GSA has not yet announced the fee schedule for the 2018 season. We will advise players what fees are payable as soon as the announcement is made.

If anyone has any questions, please feel free to contact me on the above email address or on mobile 0419 219 217.

Cheers & Thanks!

Tarryn
