BILLING AND PAYMENT

In 2018, St Joseph's School will again be billing each family for the entire year and not by term as in the past. Therefore, an annual statement will be produced in Term 1 to assist families to arrange payment options. We ask that all school fees are paid by in full by Week 5 of Term 3. There will be reminder statements emailed out at least twice every term.

Please see the below excerpt from our School Fee: Setting and Collection Policy regarding payment of school fees.

PROCEDURE FOR PAYMENT OF SCHOOL FEES

OPTION 1: Payment in full by 31st March.

OPTION 2: Direct Debit – fees paid directly from your Bank to the School account in weekly, fortnightly, monthly or quarterly payments. The Catholic Development Fund has set up special Fees – Free Account for parents who wish to use this service. Please call the office for details.

OPTION 3: Term payments – due by the 5th Friday of Terms One, Two and Three.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

- ❖ Direct Debit payment: i.e. regular payments. Forms are available from the school office.
- ❖ BPay: for FEES ONLY: Fees are paid directly to the school bank account using the BPay facility. BPay details are printed on your account. NOTE: Please do not use BPay to pay for uniforms, swimming and other charges not included in the School Fee amount.
- ❖ At the school office: Fees may be paid at the school office by Cash, Cheque, Credit Card or EFTPOS

Any parent seeking relief or concession or a variation of their school fees is encouraged to contact the Principal to discuss the matter and complete a Variation of School Fee Schedule.

If you are unsure how to calculate amounts or have any queries regarding your account please contact the school office for assistance.
